Kimberly Jordano has incorporated over 20 years of teaching experience. A master teacher and language-arts mentor in the Los Alamitos School District, Kimberly holds a masters degree in English as a Second Language (ESL). Twice nominated for the Disney's American Teacher Award, Kim received recognition as teacher of the year 2002!

Kim has written over 20 books and teacher resources on phonemic awareness, calendar activities, sight word-books, interactive writing, standards based thematic teaching, take-home literacy backpacks and Book Making activities.

Kim's classroom has been called a "showcase for children's creative work". It can be transformed into a rain forest or an undersea adventure and her creative lessons bring the room alive!

Come and learn how your classroom can be transformed for your students this fall!!
