TRANSFORMATIONAL COACHING

THE ART OF COACHING

FROM ELENA AGUILAR'S BRIGHT MORNING & ilascd

Want to be a Transformational Coach? What you need is straightforward: structured space to practice and receive feedback combined with expert modeling and a few prioritized tools. Gain two critical resilience boosters: space and community. First, the chance to slow down, reflect on your values, and remember what brought you into your role and this field. Then, the opportunity to learn in community, share wisdom, and form meaningful connections. You'll leave with renewed energy, inspired to return to your school or organization to implement all you have learned.

Success Criteria

- What makes Transformational Coaching uniquely powerful as a way to build emotional resilience in educators and interrupt inequitable practices
- The three components of a Transformational Coaching conversation and how to use multiple strategies and tools for each component
- Your strengths and areas for growth as a coach and leader
- How you can improve your coaching skills through scaffolded practice with other committed learners

Schedule – 9 hours of content!

Part 1: Asynchronous [4+ hours]

Your experience begins with a self-guided exploration of the foundations of Transformational Coaching. This combination of knowledge-building and reflection will help you clarify your vision for yourself as a Transformational Coach. Elena has curated 21 hours of learning for this stage. While all content is highly recommended, four hours of learning content has been identified as required.

Part 2: Self-Guided Reflection [1 hour]

You'll synthesize your learning from Part 1 and prepare to share some of your reflections, takeaways, and questions in our virtual live session.

Part 3: Virtual Live [4 hours]

Next, you'll come together with a Bright Morning facilitator and a community of coaches to process your learning, observe masterful coaching, engage in coaching role plays, and receive feedback to sharpen your practice.
